

Faculty of Health & Social Care
Inaugural Acute Care Conference

'Contemporary Issues in Acute Care'

Wednesday 25th November 2009, 9:30am – 4:30pm
Anglia Ruskin University, Victoria House, Fulbourn, Cambridge.

This conference celebrates the development and advances in the management of those people in need of acute care, creates an opportunity to share knowledge, debate the advancement of this specialty and to improve the quality of care for these patients.

The main conference topics are:

- Contemporary issues in acute care
- Education for practice
- New ways of working
- Research

Keynote Speakers

Andrew Lansley, CBE MP Shadow Secretary of State for Health and Member of Parliament for South Cambridgeshire.

Julie Scholes, Professor of Nursing, Centre for Nursing and Midwifery, University of Brighton. Editor of Nursing in Critical Care 'The work around new ways of working and impact of learning physical assessment skills on decision making and practice.'

Leslie Gelling, Senior Research Fellow, Acute Care Department, Anglia Ruskin University. Editor of Nurse Researcher, Hope in acute care: A core clinical concept.

Call for 'Abstracts'

Abstracts are invited for concurrent and poster presentations relating to the conference themes.

General Enquiries:

Tel: 01223 885920

Email: acutecareconf@anglia.ac.uk

Bookings received before the 1st September = £85.00

Conference Website

www.anglia.ac.uk/acutecareconference