Pros of GP commissioning

- Can spot waste
- Are sensible
- Like it simple
- Keep it real
- Have local knowledge
- Have patients best interests at heart
- Still retain some public trust
- Have clinical knowledge
- Have front line experience
- Are aware re need for integration across and co-ordination between health and social services

Cons of GP commissioning

- Are undertrained in commissioning, budget management procurement etc
- Are horrendously busy
- May be overly loyal to our partners
- May have little grasp of complex mental health needs
- Have local knowledge that rarely extends across a locality, let alone a CCG
- Are biased towards “our” patients
- May have provider/commissioner conflict of interests
