Hi all

Kate and I have been discussing this today - hence the email so we don't forget the need to discuss and agree this in the guidelines group!

Caveat required in next edition of the guidelines book

" There is a possibility that a guideline may be updated between publication of this book and the next edition in 2 years time. Any instrumental change in guideline before the next edition will be published on the network website <http://www.networks.nhs.uk/nhs-networks/staffordshire-shropshire-and-black-country-newborn> . It is the user's responsibility to ensure they are following the most up to date version of a guideline"

Kind regards

Ruth
