

Respiratory Admission Questions

	YES	NO
Was baby born by elective CS before 39 weeks
Was there a medical indication for delivery before 39 weeks
If baby was born by elective section before 39 weeks, did they receive steroids?
If infection was underlying cause, were intrapartum antibiotics given if indicated
Age at admission
Baby came from Delivery Suite
Baby came from PNW
Baby came from MLU
Did Tier 2 review the baby at the time of decision of admission to NNU?
How much oxygen was baby in when baby was initially reviewed?
How much oxygen was baby in when baby was admitted?
What were the oxygen sats at the time of admission?
Was there 'isolated' grunting?
Did baby require respiratory support at time of admission?
What form – Ventilation CPAP HHNC Incubator oxygen
Did baby require ongoing respiratory support during admission?
What form – Ventilation CPAP HHNC Incubator oxygen
Was baby identified by NeoNEWS?
Was there hypothermia before admission?
Were measures taken to treat hypothermia?
How long did team stay with baby on Delivery Suite before admission to NNU?
How many reviews did baby have by team prior to admission to NNU?
Duration of oxygen or respiratory support required by baby during admission
Length of stay on NNU
Was weaning off IVI/establishing feeds the main cause for stay on NNU?
Was baby admitted as a default concern around infant well-being on the PNW
Provisional Diagnosis:

