

Surgical and Pain Study Day

Programme

Date | 07th December 2017

Location | Keele Clinical Education Centre, Royal Stoke University Hospital, Newcastle Road
Stoke on Trent, ST4 6QG

Audience | All healthcare professionals working within a neonatal unit setting.

09.15	Registration and Welcome
Plenary Sessions
09.30	Neonatal Surgical Nursing – A Snapshot	Bernadette Reda Lead Nurse, Neonatal Surgical Outreach Birmingham Children's Hospital
10.30	Treatment for NEC and it's Complications Recurrent Abdominal Distension	Max Pachi Consultant Paediatric Surgeon
11.15	Coffee Break
11.30	Management of Trachea- Oesophageal Fistulas/OA	Max Pachi Consultant Paediatric Surgeon
12.30	Discussion Time	Max Pachi / Bernadette Reda Consultant Paediatric Surgeon / Lead Nurse, Neonatal Surgical Outreach Birmingham Children's Hospital
13.00	Dinner Break
Plenary Sessions
13.30	Stoma Care	Natalie Tideswell Senior Clinical Nurse Royal Stoke University Hospital
14.30	Pain Assessment Tools	Amy-Leigh Proctor Staff Nurse Royal Stoke University Hospital Faculty
15.45	The Use of Morphine in Ventilated Patients?	Dr. Fassaludhin ST4, Paediatrics Royal Stoke University Hospital
16.30	Evaluation and Close

For further details please contact Joanne Gregory: Joanne.Mullock@uhn.nhs.uk

Please register via linx.worxinfo.com