

STUDY DAY

“Neonatal surgery - What does the future hold?”

When: Tuesday 15th October
09:00 – 17:00

Where: Weston House Lecture Theatre
Great Ormond Street Hospital

Exciting speakers and topics

- Mr. Ian Yardley (Evelina)- Managing the long gap OA- does the Foker have its place?
- Mr. Dominic Thompson (GOSH Paediatric Neurosurgeon)- In utero fetal surgery for Spina Bifida.
- Mr. Max Pahl (Birmingham Children's Hospital) - Exomphalos Major
- Mr Jonathan Sutcliffe (Leeds Children's Hospital)- Using Outcomes to develop Neonatal Surgical Services
- Mr. Joe Curry (GOSH)- Management of Short bowel and stomas
- Rebecca Chilvers (Psychologist, Guys and St. Thomas') - Staff Well-being

Cost: £40 (includes tea/coffee, lunch)

How to book or for more information:

Find us on: www.eventbrite.co.uk – Neonatal Surgery
Facebook: Neonatal Surgery

Rhiannon (Chairperson)
Fiona

nnsbchairperson@gmail.com
fiona.metcalfe@nhs.net